The fishing wasn't as good as Pomme but there were some nice fish brought in. 46 anglers weighed in 42 fish.

First place was taken by the team of Brian Robinson and Tom O'Connor. They weighed in seven fish and Tom had a nice one Saturday that weighed 3.98 pounds. Their total weight was 21.53 pounds for $212. This was back to back 1st place wins for Robinson which jumps him into 1st place in the Angler of the Year race.

Second place went to Mike Jankowski and Pam Wakim. They had six fish for a total weight of 14.49 pounds. They used three baits, catching two on topwater & two on spinnerbaits Saturday and then two on jigs Sunday to net $170.

Third place goes to Tim and Nikki Gerner with six fish weighing 14.02 pounds. They used Senkos and jigs and took home $138.

Fourth place was the team of Lee Muschler and James Turpin ($106). Fifth place was won by the team of Brian and Christlanda Walker ($82). Dave Sona and Tom Crockett won sixth place ($58).

Congratulations to all the winners.

And a special thank you to Jason Kennedy for helping us at the weigh in.

Big Bass for Saturday

Greg Shands had a nice 3.62 and Lee Muschler had a 3.79 but it was Dave Sona who took home the $90 check when he weighed in a 4.69 lb. bass that he reported catching on a Brush Hog. Dave's bass held up as big bass for the weekend which netted him the $110 side pot.

Big Bass for Sunday

Wakim had a 3.39, Stanek had a 3.68 and Robinson had a 3.98 but Craig Gravatte took Big Bass for Sunday with a nice 4.43 pounder to snag the other $90 BB check. He reported catching his fish on a Sweet Beaver.

Big Bass for the Year

Dan Ketterer is still the front runner for Big Bass of the Year with the 6.27 pounder he picked up at Pomme last month.

AOY

Taking the lead in 1st place with 78 points is Brian Robinson. Dave Sona slips to 2nd with 69 points and moving into third place is Bryan Walker with 65 points.
