Lewis/Lewis Win LOZ II

Mark & Kirk figured out what the fish wanted early and managed to bring in 8 fish for 17.46 lbs of winning weight. They caught all fish on jigs and shakey heads in 4 foot or less of water.

Again, the lake was tough for most of the field, but fall fishing is a tough pattern, especially on LOZ.

First place payout was $288.
Congratulations Mark and Kirk!

LOZ II News

LOZ II brought 28 boats to a the lake for a battle royal of fish that played "Hide & Seek" instead.

Morning temps on Day 1 were in the mid 50s and Day 2, mid 40s, but both days warmed nicely with sunshine and temps between 75 and 80ish.

Water temps stayed in the high 60s where I fished. Water level was still 3+ foot foot low with visibility around 2 foot or less.

Fall fishing on LOZ can be tough and this lake has been miserably beat up for 6 weeks with major tournaments going on most days with practices on off days.

By the time we arrived, the lake was BROKE, the fish were BROKE and the catching part was very frustrating for most.

Out of 28 boats, only 4 boats weighed in more than 10 lbs. That's tough fall fishing IMO.
