Stockton Lake – June 7/8, 2003

Storms on Friday gave way to some beautiful weather on Saturday and Sunday for the Stockton “T”, and the fish were biting (for some). It was an evenly split tournament with 43 fish weighed on Saturday and 47 on Sunday. But the big difference was WHO weighed in the fish.

It seems there was a major change in patterns from one day to the next. Saturday was OWNED by Greg Shands & Bob Ray with a 12.65 lb sack of 7 fish, and a 5 pound lead. Even though they ZERO'd on Sunday, their weight held up for a fourth place finish overall. Gary & Donnie Eubanks did the reverse. They blanked on Saturday and came in with 11.76 pounds (5 fish) on Sunday for a 5th place finish overall. The largest weight on Sunday was 12.48 pounds (7 fish) by Bill Fortel and Jason Mylar. Their advantage was that they weighed 2.35 lbs on Saturday, for an overall 3rd place finish.

But, as usual, consistency was the name of the game. Brian and Kelly Robinson weighed in 7.65 lbs (Sat) & 8.78 lbs (Sun) for a total of 16.43 lbs and second place. Tony Pinson and John Maness had 7.85 lbs on Saturday, and an even 10.00 lbs on Sunday for the winning weight of 17.85 lbs.

“Almost counted” awards go to Tom Hornbeck for his “almost” caught 7lber on Friday, and Chuck Beach for his “almost” caught 5lber on Sunday.

The non-species award go to Eric Neff, who apparently forgot about the “bass” part of the rules, and caught 3 nice Walleye.

Angler of the Year Race

The leader in the Angler of the Year competition, Dave Sona, did not get in the money this tournament, but still added 4 fish to his total. This is his first "out of the money" finish this year. His lead in the "A of Y" Points total is a little less, but still a commanding 24 points. Bill Fortel and Bob Ray leapfrogged into a 3rd place tie. They are only 1 point away from Neil Volkman, in second place, who didn't fish this month. The rest of the TOP-10 looks like this: John Luzynski (5th), Terry Stanek (6th), Ted Reim (7th), Brian Robinson (8th), Teddy Reim (9th) and Bob Treadway (10th). Looks like a good competition. It's not a run-a-way yet. They are all great anglers (that's why they are in the TOP-10).

.....stay tuned!
