Truman Lake – September 13/14, 2003

By Greg Heinz - Secretary

Does everyone remember what I said about Wappapello last month? About it being hot?? Fishing-wise and weather-wise??? Do you remember the part about those "DOUBLE LIMITS"???? Well, do ya???? Well, let's just say it was different this month at Truman. Temps were much cooler, with many of the new (really sharp looking) club jackets being worn. The fishing got cooler also. Our 22 boats (44 anglers) only brought in 26 fish for BOTH DAYS. That's pretty slim pickens for Truman.

Gary and Donnie Eubanks weighed in 2 fish each, and took First Place with their 9.26 lb total. There was a tie for second place (more about that later). Tony Pinson (fishing alone) weighed in 3 fish for 6.24 lbs. Terry Stanek and Bob Treadway also had 3 fish for 6.24 lbs.

Fourth, Fifth and Sixth place teams each weighed one fish per team. Dave Sona watched Neil Volkmann weigh in his 1 fish for 4th place. Tom watched Mike weigh in the 5th place finisher, and Steve Carnal stood by as Brian Ameiss weighed the 6th place fish.

Statistics Time: If you want to do the math, then figure 26 fish for 44 anglers fishing 12 hours each. That's 528 angler-hours, or 20.3 fishing hours per fish. You can also look at it as an average of .62 fish per person for the tournament.

The Saturday Big Bass competition had a familiar name again. Donnie came close, but didn't get the cigar. Donnie's 3.40 lb fish, and Brian Ameiss's 4.04 lber were beaten by Mike McGraw and his 4.49 lber.

Sunday Pam Wakim brought up a nice 3.23 lb bass only to come in second to Neil Volkmann's 5.56 lb lunker. Neil also won the side pot of $110.00.

Rules Review: How do we handle ties?

When a tie happens between teams, we add the money together for the positions tied for, and split it equally between the teams. In this case, we added

1st Place

Gary & Donnie Eubanks
9.26 lbs, 4 Fish

2nd Place - TIE

Tony Pinson
6.24lbs, 3 Fish

2nd Place - TIE

Terry Stanek & Bob Treadway
6.24lbs, 3 Fish

Club Jackets

We know of 6 jackets that people want. If anyone else wants a jacket, please let Greg know by 9-26-03. We will place the order, and try to deliver them at the Awards Banquet. So if anyone wants an embroidered club jacket, please email Greg at the 2nd place money ($144.00 for a 21 boat payout) and 3rd place money ($114.00) together which totaled $258.00. Then we divided that in half and each team got $129.00.

Please note a couple of other statistical abnormalities this month. Because there was a tie for second place, both teams that tied for second place get second place POINTS, and there were NO third place points awarded. By the way, before anyone asks, Tony DOES NOT get double points for fishing alone.

Chili Supper

Gary and Donnie out did themselves at the Chili Supper. The Chili, dogs and fixins were excellent. Those who were there, were all hoping that this will be repeated next year.

Ok, we've baited long enough. The surprise for this years' Awards Banquet is that we will have a guest speaker. We are very pleased to have Missouri Pro Chad Brauer attending, and helping present some of the awards.

In addition to his Bachelors Degree in Fisheries and Wildlife from MU, Chad's accomplishments include being a past competitor in the prestigious Bassmaster's Classic, and being a past qualifier for the BASS Top 100 Tour. He has had several top 10 finishes, including a win at the 1996 Tennessee Top 100 at Old Hickory Lake. More info on Chad, as well as lots of informative fishing articles, can be found at

Keep the date open. It's, Saturday, October 25th, at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Washington, MO. Dinner, trophies, club awards, and attendance prizes.
