Clearwater Lake News

Thirty Four boats kicked off the 27th season of the Hawg Hawlers on Clearwater Lake.

After a heavy fog delay of just over an hour, the weather turned out to be perfect again with temps ranging from the low 40's in the morning to 65 degrees at weigh in. We had a very light wind with early blue skies and mid day clouds covering our heads.

Water temps ranged from 48 to 52 degrees depending on where you were on the lake. Water clarity was slightly stained up in the river and heavier stained in the deeper areas of Webb and Logan creeks with floating debris from the high water.

Water levels were 12 feet over winter pool at 506 ft. and dropping about a foot a day. I'm sure this had something to do with the tough fishing conditions.
