LOZ II Lake News

LOZ brought 32 boats to our year ending tournament for a pretty pathetic LOZ bite. (paying 8 places)

The weather at takeoff (both days) was in the low 40s and reaching mid 80s on Saturday and high 70s on Sunday. Skies were sunny and high both days.

Water temps ranged from mid 60s in the mornings to low 70s late in the day. Water level was 2+ ft low with color and slightly below average visibility.

Most everyone struggled to find a bite. Out of 128 weigh in possibilities, 82 were ZERO weight. This means that 36% chance of weighing a single fish. NINE boats zero'd for the weekend. That's rough!

Winning baits were: A-rigs, shakey heads, wacky worms and crankbaits.

Special thanks to everyone that made the Chili dinner a huge success! We heard reports that it was a total "blow out". Pfffff....

Team Albertson win LOZ II

Chance and Bernell outperformed everyone with a win at LOZ with very tough conditions. Their total weight was 14.76 lbs with 6 fish.

They caught all their fish on A-Rigs and Shakey Heads and Chance brought in Big Fish of the day on Saturday.

First place payout was $308 smackeroos.

Congratulations Chance and Bernell!
