MTwain Lake News

Mark Twain brought 27 boats to the lake for chocolate milk fishing adventures. (paying 7 places)

Saturday, take off temp was 60 degrees and it stayed cloudy and grey all day with some getting rain. It opened up and poured for weight in until 8pm ish. Sunday had similar temps, but warmed to high 70s by noon with sun/cloud mix.

Water temps were low/mid 70s with a chocolate milk visibility that got much worse on Sunday due to the storms.

Fishing was typical Twain. Many struggled and we saw way fewer limits than at other lakes.

Winning baits were: spooks, senkos, chatterbaits, squarebills and wacky rigs and frogs!

A special thank you to our hosts at Country Inn Resort. They go above and beyond to make our stay wonderful.

Paul Bruemmer/Jason Neal Win Mark Twain

Paul & Jason managed weigh in 7 alusive fish to take the win at Mark Twain with a winning weight of 21.20 lbs.

They report that they caught all their fish on shakey senkos.

First place payout was $288 and all the chocolate milk they can handle.

Congratulations Paul & Jason!
