Team Shands managed snag 11 fish to take the win at Pomme I with a total weight of 25.94 lbs.

We'll give you 1 guggess as to what they caught all their fish on. Hint: Brush Hogs

First place payout was $314 smackeroos.

Congratulations Greg & Andy!

Pomme Lake News

Pomme I brought 33 boats to a high, muddy lake for our first of 3 Pomme tourneys this year. (paying 8 places)

The weather was decent on both days with a little drizzle in spots on Sunday morning. Temps both days started in the mid 50s and overcast and ended in the high 60s on Sat and low 70s with a bit more sun on Sunday.

Water temps (where I was) were 62 degrees pretty much both days, but 10 degrees cooler than during practice on Friday. Water level was around 89 foot high and muddy unless you were around the mid lake or dam areas.

Most reported catching their fish in the brush, but you had to find the stretches that held the fish.

Winning baits were: brush hogs, tubes, shakey head and finess worms.

Pomme is a favorite lake to many and almost always provides great results.
